

SanIndus also has developed a special database master/slave version. Data is been written in to the master and is been read from the slaves. Master to slaves duplication times are microseconds (as they consists as an internal secondary database structure/layer). The SanIndus database versions are specially designed per database brand and available for any global sold database brand.